

We live in America, not Iraq, and if this change passes the richest person or company in our country will be able to control our entire news media.